

Steel at the Price of Wood

STEEL—

How much more would you pay for a Steel Letter File, than a wooden file? How much more is the added convenience, cleanliness, permanence and security worth to you?

Here's your opportunity to secure a Steel Four-Drawer Cabinet at less than the same equipment in the better grades of wood.

It is a "VAN DORN" Special—made up by the makers of the famous Van Dorn "Simplicity-in-Steel" office equipment in quantities large enough to reduce the manufacturing costs to a figure better than wood.

This is a splendid chance for you, Mr. Business Man who has never used steel, to prove its advantages.

SPECIAL PRICE for a Four-Drawer Steel Letter File, $36.00.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. J. J. Austin of Granville is visiting friends in Barre for a few days.
Dance to-night, armory hall, Montpelier. Admission, 75c per couple—adv.
Largest line of new and second-hand ranges and heaters in Barre at lowest prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.
Clyde J. Lawless, who has been confined to his bed the past two weeks, is able to sit up a little while each day.
Earl Maxham, cow tester for the Washington Cow Testing association, is making his monthly visit with the Barre farmers.
Fall and winter millinery opening of Mrs. E. A. Witham, Saturday, Sept. 20. Ladies of Barre and vicinity are cordially invited.—adv.
Miss Irene Winnette of Worcester, Mass., arrived yesterday and is visiting at the home of Miss Irene Blair of North Main street.
Mrs. H. S. Miles wishes to announce the reopening of millinery parlors Saturday, Sept. 20, at 33 Merchant street. Will welcome all old and new customers.—adv.

Nance McRea of White River Junction is visiting at the home of his parents in the city and will leave soon for Worcester, Mass., where he has employment.
John Morrison, owner of the Morrison farm on west hill, and Mrs. Merle Close and two daughters, Emily and Lucille, left today for Cambridge, Mass., their home, after spending the summer months at the Morrison farm.
A number of the Italian populace of Barre are leaving this fall for their native country. A party of five left last night. They will join their families in Italy. Carlo Brusa, Natale Brusa, James Sulli and Antonio Papato, all of Smith street, left last night.
Owing to the heavy enrollment in the commercial department at Goddard, it has been deemed wise to add another teacher to that branch. Prin. O. K. Hollister is in communication with parties at present and hopes to be able to announce the new instructor for next Monday.

Mrs. Josie Lougee of Eastern avenue is entertaining her son, Corp. Guy W. Lougee, who was recently discharged from the service and was connected with the 76th division, 301st infantry, but after the armistice was signed he was prisoner of war escort 239. He has been in the service some 23 months and over—some about 15 months.

Max Holden of South Main street, Earl Burgess of Washington street, Arthur Camire of east hill and Howard Gieske of Granvilleville, are among the young men from Barre who will attend Boston university. They left last night to be present at the opening to-morrow. Three of the number will study business administration, while the fourth, Earl Burgess, takes up expert accounting.

A. M. Flanders, the Indian motorcycle agent of this city, will take part in the motorcycle races at West Springfield, Mass., to-day at the Eastern States exposition. He left last night and expects to return this evening. Mr. Flanders, who contemplated racing at the White River Junction state fair, is entered in the dealers' five-mile race which will be staged on a half-mile track. Dealers from various parts of the East are entered in this competition and among that number are a great many old-time speedsters.

Mr. Flanders made preparations before he started to have a high-powered Indian motorcycle in readiness for the race.
The two-act musical comedy, "Flo Flo," attracted a capacity crowd to the Barre opera house last evening and it gave a good measure of satisfaction in many of its phases. The singing was of fair quality, the girlish voice of Penelope Rowland being especially appealing and the more finished work of Hazel Alger and Gertrude Lopez receiving approval. Carl George and Ben Hastings as keepers of the bride shop, where the light and airy plot had its setting, were very amusing, and George Pierce and Frank Masters were exceedingly dexterous in the use of their feet. As advertised, a strong feature of the performance was the display of women's apparel of a varied nature. If the crowd at the theatre is any criterion of the theatrical appetite of Barre and vicinity, then the local theatre seems destined to have a good year.

The representatives of the National Monumental, Builders' and Pavers' associations, which were invited to meet representatives of the quarry workers' union here, held the conference at the Pavilion hotel in Montpelier yesterday. The session opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and continued until 4, stopping only for lunch at noon hour. The discussion was confined entirely to the question of a national wage scale for the workers, but nothing definite resulted from yesterday's conference, so two sub-committees of four each from the quarry workers' and quarry owners' associations were appointed to discuss the question. The separate committees were to report their conclusions to the general conference to-day. This conference will doubtless continue until the latter part of this week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Stanley of Waterbury visited in Barre yesterday.
James Thompson has finished his duties in A. Bass's shoe shop and has begun work in Mr. Gobbi's shop.
J. W. Gordon gave an interesting three-minute talk last evening at the Park theatre in the interest of the American Legion drive.
Miss Elizabeth Stephens, a nurse of the Memorial hospital at Brattleboro, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Free-land for two weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hooker have returned from Boston, where they have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. J. Cutler, for the past week. Mrs. Cutler and daughter, Cynthia, Miss Bertina Hooker and Mrs. H. D. Sowles of Boston accompanied them home.

SUFFERER FROM ANEMIA REGAINS INTEREST IN LIFE

Violent Headaches and Stomach Trouble Disappeared, Says Vermont Woman.

"I suffered from anemia for many years," says Mrs. Eva Rice of No. 43 Weldon street, St. Albans, Vt. "I was often sick at my stomach after eating and had violent headaches. My heart would almost stop beating at times and palpitation would follow. I could not climb stairs or exercise to any extent on account of this."

"The treatment that I was taking did not help me and when I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper I decided to try them. In ten days I began to feel better. I was stronger, had more blood and the heart attacks stopped."

"I can enjoy my food now as I am no longer sick at my stomach after eating. The headaches are entirely gone and I can sleep and feel rested in the morning. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic and I am greatly pleased with the remedy."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, postpaid. Write for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.
